HEAD BASKETBALL COACH

A new era for University of Maryland basketball began in March 1969 when Director of Athletics Jim Kehoe announced the appointment of Charles "Lefty" Driesell as the new head coach of the Terrapins.

Driesell established as one of the finest basketball coaches in the nation immediately began his drive to bring Maryland basketball into national prominance. His first move was the appointment of George Raveling, former Villanova star, as his top assistant. He since has added Jim Maloney, former Niagara head coach, and Joe Harrington, a Maryland favorite, to his staff.

Lefty literally began at the bottom in establishing his program at Maryland. He has completely renovated the basketball facilities in Cole Field House. The dressing room facilities, training room and basketball offices all have benefited from his tireless devotion to perfection and serve as a testimonial to his dedication to making Maryland basketball the best.

In the short time he had to devote to recruiting for the 1969-70 school year he did an outstanding job. He immediately returned to his native state of Virginia and persuaded the two top high school stars in the state to continue their education at the University of Maryland. His eight recruits for the coming year in addition to the pair from Virginia include two from California, and one each from Iowa, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and New York.

It is only fitting that he should begin building his program around two Virginia products. Lefty was born in Norfolk on December 25, 1931 and is a graduate of Norfolk's Granby High. He went on to Duke and received his degree from there in 1954. His coaching career began at Granby High and includes two years at Newport News High.

Lefty moved on to Davidson College in 1960 and immediately transformed a previously dormant basketball program into one of the Nation's best. He compiled a nine year record of 176-65 and the Southern Conference selected him "Coach of the Year" in 1963, 1964, 1965 and 1966, an unmatched honor.

BASKETBALL STAFF

George Raveling (Villanova '60)

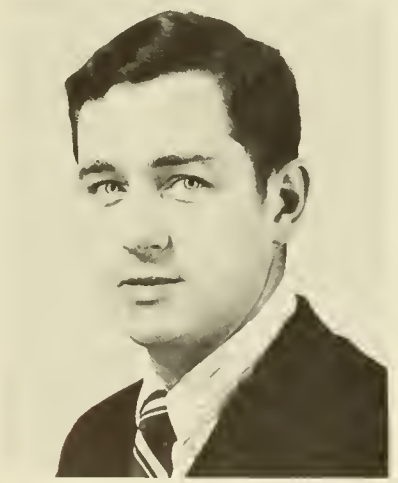
George "The Rave" Raveling was the first Assistant hired by Coach Driesell in his drive to build a championship basketball program at Maryland. Raveling knows what it is to be a champion. He played on championship teams in high school and at Villanova. After receiving his Bachelor's degree in Economics he remained at Villanova as an assistant coach and helped the Wildcats achieve top ten ranking in three of the next four years.

William Fry
Trainer

William "Spider" Fry, a 1951 graduate of the University, returned to his alma mater in March, 1967, as Head Trainer of Athletics. He had served for five years in a similar capacity at Dartmouth College.

As an undergraduate, Fry earned his letter in varsity soccer and a B.S. degree in Physical Education. He was an assistant trainer for several years before becoming head trainer at Dartmouth in 1962. He was director of District III for the National Athletic Trainers Association in 1958.

Spider and Sandy (Penn state '61) have one daughter, Elizabeth Kay, who has just turned two.



Jim Maloney (Niagara '59)

Jim Maloney, former Niagara head coach, although only 34 has an outstanding coaching record. In 1961 he coached the team that represented Canada in the Olympic Games. This team compiled a 29-1 record. After a 14-2 season with the JV at Lockport High in New York he moved up to the varsity and compiled a two year 34-7 record and the first championship ever for Lockport. He then moved to Niagara, where he recruited and developed Calvin Murphy. In three years he compiled a 35-38 record at Niagara, winning at least 11 games each year. In addition to coaching the Terp freshmen he will contribute greatly to the recruiting program.

Joe Harrington (Maryland '68)

Joe Harrington, a favorite with the Maryland fans from 1963 through 1967 was always considered a fundamentally sound player and keen student of the game. He was one of New England's all-time greats at Morse High, Bath Maine.

Harrington will help coordinate the academic activities of each player and assist Jim Maloney with the freshman squad. A consistent player, Joe played some of his best collegiate games against area rivals GW, Georgetown and Navy. Following a 20 point performance against GW in his junior year he suffered a knee injury and missed the final 10 games. After an operation he came back to play in 22 games his senior year.

The popular Terp Captain although hard pushed by several sophomores is expected to start on the wing for Coach Driesell. Tom is certain to see plenty of action especially against West Virginia. The Richwood, West Virginia native had a career high of 26 against Marshall in Huntington and came back the next night in Huntington with 17 against Miami. He also contributed 18 points against West Virginia University in Morgantown. He made the All-Tournament team in the Marshall Invitational last year. His 24 rebounds against West Virginia topped the 22 grabbed by Bob Kessler against Georgetown in 1956 and Al Bunge against Georgetown in 1958. Will moved up to number seven among the all-time Maryland scorers with his 956 points. He is sure to finish among the top five. Will's brother Fred was an All-American for Coach Driesell at Davidson. Will is certain to see a lot of action although he must adjust to Coach Driesell's style in order to break into the starting lineup. All-Metropolitan at Landon Prep in high school. Mickey immediately established himself as the point man in Coach Driesell's single guard offense. The scrappy guard from Berwyn Heights, Maryland could excel in the current Maryland offense. He will get the ball up court and in to the big men. Mickey played on one of the area's finest scholastic teams at nearby DeMatha but began his collegiate career at Georgia. He earned his letter at Georgia as a sophomore. After spending a year on the sidelines he earned his junior letter at Maryland last year as a starting guard. Mickey won numerous honors while playing for Morgan Wooten at DeMatha both local and national. The blond haired, blue eyed senior is a favorite of the Terrapin fans.
